HOC SIGNO FORTUNA.

BALTIMORE, THURSDAY, January 30, 1823.

All the Floating Capitals

in the STATE LOTTERY still remain in the wheel, notwithstanding that 350 Numbers were again drawn yesterday afternoon. The fine situation of the Scheme at this time should cause immediate investments by those not yet supplied. All the important prizes are still undrawn, except 2 of One Thousand Dollars; one of which came out yesterday to No. 10450. Our official list is on the opposite page.

ONLY FIVE MORE DRAWINGS remain to complete the STATE LOTTERY, and the few tickets on hand are going off rapidly—a scarcity will soon be the consequence—and we have to advise our distant friends to complete their purchases or renewals immediately, in order to prevent disappointments in procuring chances, for it will be recollected that there were many in the last State Lottery who delayed their orders until they arrived too late to be supplied.

Orders from any part of the United States, enclosing the Cash or Prize Tickets, post paid will meet the same prompt attention, as if on personal application, addressed to

J. I. COHEN, Jr.—Baltimore.

The interval of two weeks, which the Commissioners of the STATE LOTTERY allowed between the 4th and 5th drawings, we are glad to find, meet the general approbation of adventurers, particularly those at a distance, it having given the opportunity of renewing many small prizes, and which was desirable at this improved period of the scheme. The whole of the great capitals are still undrawn; and the whole of them except two, are NOW FLOATING.

Whole Tickets, $12 | Quarters, $3 00
Halves, 6 | Eighths, 1 50 to be had at COHEN'S OFFICE Baltimore, warranted undrawn. The same promptness is paid to all applications, whether in person, or by letter.

The notes of any of the Banks in Virginia, N. Carolina, S. Carolina, or Georgia, will be received in payment, at par, and also the notes of all specie paying Banks in Maryland, Delaware, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Ohio or New-York.

HUGH NELSON, of Virginia, has been appointed by the President of the United States, with the advice and consent of the Senate, to the Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary from the U. States to Spain, in the place of Mr. Forsyth, who is about to return home.

ARRIVAL OF THE JOHN ADAMS.

The United States Corvette John Adams, Capt. RENSCHAW, arrived at Norfolk, on the 22d inst.—The J. A. is from a cruise in the Gulf of Mexico, and we have the pleasure to state, that her officers and crew are in excellent health. She sailed from Tampico about the 23d of December, and Havana, on the 11th inst. JOEL R. POINSETT, Esquire, Member of Congress from South Carolina, who went out in her, for the purpose of acquiring information relative to the government and institutions of the new Empire, has returned home in the J. A. and will, we learn, proceed immediately to Washington, to take his seat in the National Legislature.

The following is the only news of importance, relative to Mexican affairs brought by this arrival.

The new Empire is represented to be in a complete state of anarchy. The congress was forcibly dissolved by order of the Emperor (Iturbide), the latter end of October, fourteen members arrested and thrown into prison, and a Junta substituted for it, composed of 54 members of the Congress, selected by the Emperor himself; two members being retained from each of the larger provinces, and one from the smaller. This Junta at present constitutes the Legislature of Mexico—but being chosen by the Emperor, and consequently subservient to his views alone, nothing but the potent argument of a superior armed force, can maintain respect for the result of its deliberations, against the great discontent and excitement produced in all the provinces, by the act of violence and tyranny which they have just witnessed.

Santa Ana, the Governor of Vera Cruz, being summoned to Xabara by the Emperor, and deprived of his command, returned immediately to Vera Cruz, assembled his regiment and the other troops of the Garrison, and after haranging them upon the arbitrary and tyrannical conduct of Iturbide, who he endeavoured to render odious by loading him with every term of obloquy and contempt—proclaimed REPUBLICAN GOVERNMENT on the 2d of December.

Latest Foreign Intelligence.

The last intelligence from Europe, is by the arrival of the brig Ontario, at Salem, in 42 days from England—the latest date received, is of London, December 7. It will be seen below, that actual hostilities have not yet commenced between France and Spain, a disposition being evinced to try the effects of negotiation.

VERONA, November 26, 1822.

The congress is at length finally dissolved. The powers who are most impatient for war, with Spain, have consented to try the effect of negotiation before they commence their grand crusade. An official remonstrance either has been or will be immediately dispatched to the Cabinet of Madrid, demanding such an alteration in the Constitutional system, as will at least render it analogous to that of Portugal, and place the Crown beyond the reach of popular control. In the case of refusal, Russia, Austria and Prussia will give their fullest sanction to the hostilities which the Ultras of France are so anxious to commence—and there is no doubt that the Army of Observation will soon cross the frontier.

England will not under such circumstances, become a party to the measure, for she sanctions the principle of an armed intervention only in case of the Constitutionalists being determined to put the King to death, or involve other countries.

The Greeks are to be left to the good faith of Turkey, who has given to Lord Strangford, a conditional pledge of future moderation towards them. The London Editor remarks on this—that this is the most farcical of all political farces, delivering the lambs to the tender protection of the wolf.

HAGUE, December 3, 1822.

A letter from Constantinople, states, that an European Commercial house, established in that city, has presented to the Porte a plan for a loan of forty millions of Turkish Piasters. Should this loan be really made, this will be detrimental to the Greeks, who are much favored by the exhausted state of the Treasury, and the wavering of the Ottoman ministry.

Congress of the United States.

IN THE SENATE, the bill to abolish imprisonment for debt, continues to be the prominent subject of discussion. No question has yet been taken on the main principle, or any of the incidental propositions; and of course no decisive opinion can be formed of the fate of the measure in that body—Nor can any satisfactory indications of the issue be gathered from the course of the discussion, as both sides of the question are maintained with great ability, though the advocates of the bill have, so far, outnumbered its opponents. The interest of the subject, and the talents engaged in the debate, have attracted to the Senate, crowded auditories for several days.

Naval Establishment.—The Report of the Secretary of the Navy, on the Peace establishment, recommends, among other things, the creation of one Rear Admiral, five Commodores, twenty-five Captains, thirty Masters Commandants, one hundred and ninety Lieutenants, twenty Sailing Masters, four hundred Midshipmen, thirty-five Surgeons, forty-five Mates, forty Pursers, six Chaplains, twenty Boatswains, twenty Gunners, fifteen Carpenters, fifteen Sailing Masters and others, not exceeding three thousand five hundred. It also recommends that the officers be paid a certain sum per annum. The Secretary calculates that by the adoption of this plan, the expence of the naval establishment will be reduced about $90,000 per annum.

It also states that as the Peace establishment of the Marine Corps, was fixed by the act of March, 1817, and no alteration being deemed necessary, no other plan had been prepared to accompany the report.

Post-Office Department.—The bill reported in the House of Representatives to regulate the Post-Office establishment, resembles, a good deal, the bill of the last Session, which passed the House of Representatives, and was rejected in the Senate.—The most important part of the bill is that which proposes to cause the commissions of all postmasters to expire within this year, and to make all future appointments to be for a term of four years—when the same person may be re-appointed provided they are not in arrears to government. It proposes also to take away the right of franking from all the executive officers, except the heads of departments.

By an arrival at Charleston, in 34 days from Liverpool, we are made acquainted with the afflicting news of the death of that amiable and able man, the Hon. WILLIAM LOWNDES. He died on board the ship Moss on the 27th of November, on her passage from Philadelphia to London.

The popularity which this Scheme has deservedly acquired was anticipated from its arrangement.

There is no possible Risk during the whole drawing, which gives to the adventurer a certain chance for every prize in the lottery, without a possibility of loss, until the whole Scheme is completed. Besides the great Capitals, there are the usual full proportion of Thousands, Hundreds, Fifties, &c. and no less than Five Thousand Ten Dollar Prizes!!

Adventurers not yet supplied with chances should lose no time in procuring them, because the present price of tickets is low, and because they will certainly soon become scarce—the great Floating Capitals still remaining undrawn,

Tickets only Twelve Dollars,

And Shares in the same proportion, to be had, warranted undrawn at

COHEN'S

Lottery and Exchange-Office, 114, Market-street—Baltimore;

Where more Capital Prizes have been sold than at any other office in America, and where unparalleled success to distant adventurers still continues. In the two last STATE LOTTERIES, it will be recollected that the great Capital of 40,000 dollars was sold to a gentleman in Albemarle County, Virginia—the 10,000 dollar prize to a gentleman in Lancaster, Ohio, besides no less than SEVEN CAPITALS of 5,000 DOLLARS each, to various parts of the Union.

In the MONUMENT LOTTERY, which was completed in Baltimore a few weeks ago, the TWO HIGHEST CAPITALS in the Scheme were sold at COHEN'S OFFICE, viz:—the 30,000 ollar prize to a gentleman in Alexandria; and One Half of the 20,000 dollar prize (which was sold n Shares) to a gentleman of Norfolk, Virginia, besides a 5,000 dollar prize to a gentleman in Philadelphia—and numerous prizes of One Thousand Dollars, &c. &c.

Orders from any part of the United States, either by mail (post paid) or by private conveyance, inclosing the Cash or Prizes in any of the Baltimore Lotteries, will meet the same prompt and punctual attention as if on personal application addressed to

COHEN'S "Lottery Gazette and Register," which is published every Week, will contain the Official List of each drawing, and will be forwarded throughout the Lottery, gratis, to all who purchase their Tickets at COHEN'S OFFICE. Those who wish to receive the drawings will mention it when they send on their orders.
